Hi there!

Thank you for your interest in the Jennyfah's favourites 'See you in Ghana' group tour. In this document you will find our schedule and other practical information. If you have any questions, feel free to let us know on Instagram or via jennifer@theghanatraveller.com

See you in Ghana!

Love,

Jennifer (The Ghana Traveller > IG @jennyfah.child)

PS: All activities in green are included in the fare + every breakfast is included

• DAY 0 •

Arrival day

We pick you up from the airport and bring you to our home for the first days in Accra. Depending on your arrival time, you have the day off to relax and meet the other travellers.

• DAY 1 •

Introduction

This will be our first full day together. Time to introduce ourselves properly. We will all talk about our expectations of the trip, our motivation to join the trip and of course a bit about ourselves. We will also talk about the 'white savior complex', and we will get a short Twi class so we can communicate in Ghana's most spoken local language.

After lunch there is free time, so you can pin money, discover Accra on your own or just relax at the swimming pool. We will have dinner together in the evening.

The best is yet to come: we end the day in Osu's nightlife, so bring your best glitter clothes with you!

• DAY 2 •

You think you can rest from last night and take the day easy? Nope. After breakfast we have to prepare for a cycle tour so we can do some sightseeing in Accra.

After the 3/4 hours cycle tour, we will have lunch together and then you are free to go where you want. As long as you are on time for dinner at one of the coziest restaurants in Accra.

• DAY 3 •

Accra is a nice city, and we love it there but Ghana is so much more than Accra only. So after most of the sightseeing, we will drive make a ride to the eastern part of the country.

We stay at a lodge with a view of the highest waterfall in West-Africa.

The waterfall is seperated in two parts. We will all visit the lower falls, the die-hard hikers get the opportunity to visit the upper falls as well.

Back at the lodge you can read a book, have a talk, play some (sport) games or go to town. The decision is yours!

• DAY 4 •

Hopefully you are not still tired from yesterday. Today we have a kind of sporty day in mind for you. After breakfast we head to the highest mountain in Ghana. We will also pay a visit to another waterfall close by.

Tomorrow we have a hell of a trip to do, so the rest of the day you are off to prepare. It might seem like half of the trip you will end up doing nothing, but believe us when we say that you will need all this relaxing time.

• DAY 5 •

So today we have a long trip to do. Of course we'll bring music, our phenomenal jokes and stories and you'll bring your drinks and snacks. That is probably the only way to survive.

We overnight in the largest city of the northern part, before we continue to our final destination.

• DAY 6 •

Back on the road again. Today we drive to probably Ghana's most famous national park. It might be the day you will see elephants in the wild!

If no elephants, we can still enjoy ourselves by watching monkeys and buffalos. Or a dive in the pool. But of course we hope to see elephants on our jeep tour.

• DAY 7 •

You better be a morning person, because today we have to wake up early. Before breakfast we will do a walking tour (so bring closed shoes and long trousers, you don't wanna be bitten by a snake). After breakfast we continue to our next destination.

In the afternoon we have free time, but be on time for joint dinner.

• DAY 8 •

Today we will have a cultural day. We will visit two museums, and after lunch you are able to do some (more) souvenir shopping.

Be on time for our joint dinner again!

• DAY 9 •

Today we want to hear how you are seeing the trip so far. We will discuss some issues and statements to understand our role as tourists in this country better. The rest of the day you are free to go.

But be on time for joint dinner!*

• DAY 10 •

After some days in the city, it is time to go back to nature again. We are going to visit the only lake in Ghana that isn't man-made.

We stay at a very cute guesthouse in spacious chalets and they have very tasty food. From the entrance it is only a few metres to the lake. Who is going to swim first?

If you are not really a swimmer, there will be an option to do a boat trip or even go horse back riding as well. And just like always reading a book or taking a nap is also very allowed.

• DAY 11 •

This is the day we are all waiting for! For one of your guides, it is home, and for the other one a very very good place to go back to all the time. No wonder we will spend three nights here.

We will take this first day to discover the town, and get an impression of all the activities we can do here.

• DAY 12 •

You probably woke up with the sound of the waves. Isn't this the most amazing feeling ever? Today we start the day with a yoga class, and after breakfast will we have our first surf class.

The rest of the day you are free to go, but of course we will help you with some options. Do you want to have a short hike? Or rather visit another fort? Whatever you want, we will try our best for you.

We might have a bonfire in the evening, so practice your best bonfire songs already. We wanna see you dance as well!

• DAY 13 •

After breakfast we will have our second surf class. And then you have some free time. Please be back on the beach on time, because we are going for a boat trip to the island.

In the afternoon there is free time again. You might wanna take a skateboard class, rent a surfboard and practice more or fall asleep in one of the hammocks. Everything is fine!

• DAY 14 •

Today we will have to say goodbye again. We know how painful that can be after spending time in this town. But remember: you can always come back (and we are sure you will).

Next destination is Ghana's most famous backpackers town.

The rest of the day you are off. And you might need that time to prepare for the evening. Have you seen the stage? And the dancepole? Today might be the day you'll see your tour guides from a different side. Or maybe we'll see you from a different side. Bring your best dance moves. The stage is yours!

• DAY 15 •

Hopefully you are not too afraid of heights, because this morning we will walk on bridges on the tops of the rainforest. If we survived it, we will have lunch in town before we visit Ghana's most famous slave castle.

Also on this night there will be a party you don't wanna miss.

• DAY 16 •

We take this day as a very lazy day on the beach. We will have breakfast together, and after that you have the complete day to do what you want. There might be some optional tours as well.

• DAY 17 •

No activities this morning. After lunch we drive back to our final destination. We drive back to Accra.

In the evening we have our last dinner together, and in the evening you can explore the city one more time.

• DAY 18 •

Departure day. All of us are going back to our homes. Depending on your departure time you can make your own schedule for today. As long as you are back on time at the hostel, so we can drop you off at the airport.*

• Who is this tour for •

This tour is for everyone who wants to travel to an uncommon country, but doesn't want to travel alone.

We have space for 10-15 people, but that doesn't mean you have to be in the group all the time. Every day we have breakfast together, there are some scheduled activities but there is also a lot of free time. Some activities are optional. Lunch and dinner is mostly not included, so you can decide how much you want to spend.

This trip is for people who want to meet like-minded people. We will discuss the 'white savior complex' many times, and we will correct you if you don't follow our 'behaviour guidance'*.

If you think you are going to help people, visit orphanages and schools, have to bring pencils and books to share or take pictures with cute black kids: this trip is NOT for you.

*NOTE: the 'behaviour guidance' will be shared after booking, at least one month before departure

• Why with us? •

We bring a lot of experience with us. Jennifer has been to Ghana nine times so far, and can help you prepare your stuff before you come. Justice (and the other brothers) is a Ghanaian living in Busua, Western Region. He has a lot of experience with travelling with tourists and touring around in Ghana.

We bring you to the most local places. All the places we visit are runned by Ghanaians and/or give to the community. You are contributing to Ghana, while just having fun.

We will bring 10-15 like-minded people together, so you are sure to have great conversations, discussions and a good time together.

The tour price includes a €15 donation to Justice's Brothers NGO. They provide swimming and surfing lessons to kids in the community of Busua.

We are very funny, know where the parties are and will entertain you along the way. We promise you no day will be boring!

• Are you ready? •

Hopefully we have provided you with all the needed information. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us.
